«Everything written before our time was written for our instruction, that we might derive hope from the lessons of patience and the words of encouragement in the Scriptures» These words, taken from Romans 15:4 were the focus for a recent homily. To further encourage discovery of the riches of Sacred Scripture and especially the Psalms, the following is suggested. In the introduction to Patrick Henry Reardon's classic book Christ in the Psalms we read: «It is the profound Christian persuasion that Christ walks within the Psalms, and this is the reason the Book of Psalms is the Old Testament book most often quoted in the New Testament. When He opened their eyes to the meaning of Holy Scripture, the risen Lord explained to His disciples the things concerning Himself "in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms"»

DORMITION FAST: The traditional rule for the Dormition Fast is a strict abstinence from Wednesday, 1 August until Tuesday, 14 August, with the usual mitigations (wine and oil) for Saturday and Sunday and the Feast of the Transfiguration (6 August). It is therefore observed as is the Great Fast. The Ruthenian Metropolia has identified this period as a penitential season [Canon 880, §2] (and a time to avail oneself of the Mystery of Repentance) The observance of this fast is voluntary.

*We welcome into the Life of the Trinity the daughter of Thomas and Kyla Shultz, Jr. of Jefferson Hills, PA, and granddaughter of Thomas and Nancy Shultz Sr. at this Sunday morning's Divine Liturgy.
