Before the morning star You were begotten of the Father; before the ages You were conceived without a mother, even though Arius believed You to be created, and not God. He shamelessly confused the Creator with his creatures, thus deserving eternal punishment. Yet the Council of Nicaea proclaimed You as the Son of God Who is enthroned with the Father and the Spirit.

You were the guardians of the apostolic tradition, O holy Fathers; and as teachers of the true faith, you preserved the holy and consubstantial Trinity. Together in council, you rejected the blasphemy of Arius; and with him you also refuted Macedonius who denied the divinity of the Holy Spirit. You condemned Nestorius, Eutyches, and Dioscorus, together with Sabellius and Severus. Through your prayers, preserve us from all false doctrine, and guard our lives blamelessly in the true faith.

Come, all you nations of the world, let us adore God in three holy persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – three in one. From all eternity, The Father begets the Son, equal to Him in eternity and majesty, equal also to the Holy Spirit, glorified with the Son in the Father, three persons, and yet a single power and essence and Godhead. In deep adoration, let us cry out to God: Holy is God who made all things through the Son with the cooperation of the Holy Spirit. Holy the Mighty One through Whom the Father was revealed to us, and through Whom the Holy Spirit came to this world. Holy and Immortal One, the Spirit and Comforter Who proceeds from the Father and reposes in the Son. All-holy Trinity, glory to You!

Suffrages: short intercessory prayer or petitions offered for the living and the dead.
[Latin: suffragium, -i (n.) < suffragari: to be favorable, to favor, recommend, support]
