Old Testament Good Samaritans: In 2 Chronicles 28:9-15, enemy Samaritans care for Jewish victims, treating them with kindness. Note the striking parallels in this passage to the parable Jesus tells of the Good Samaritan, especially in the following final verse 15: «And the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives. From the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, gave them food and drink, and anointed them. They let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.»

ALL PEOPLE ARE OUR NEIGHBORS. SAINT JEROME: Some think that their neighbor is their brother, family, relative or their kinsman. Our Lord teaches who our neighbor is in the Gospel parable of a certain man going down from Jerusalem to Jericho.... Everyone is our neighbor, and we should not harm anyone. If, on the contrary, we understand our fellow human beings to be only our brother and relatives, is it then permissible to do evil to strangers? God forbid such a belief! We are neighbors, all people to all people, for we have one Father. HOMILY ON PSALM 14 (15)

~ Celebrating the liturgy after the Liturgy ~

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands That holy things have taken;
Let ears that now have heard thy songs To clamor never waken.
Lord, may the tongues which 'Holy' sang Keep free from all deceiving;
The eyes which saw Thy love be bright Thy blessed hope perceiving.
The feet that tread Thy holy courts From light do Thou not banish;
The bodies by Thy body fed With Thy new life replenish.
(based on a prayer from the Malabar Liturgy of Southern India)
