

LITURGY: the work of the people,
The People of God, The Laity;
not just the priest!

The Laity's presence and participation in the Church's Liturgies are ESSENTIAL!

All Souls Saturdays are no different!

"For you are all one in Jesus Christ."
Galatians 3:28

You who are alive and you who are dead;
You are all one in Jesus Christ.

«Let us pray for our brethren who are at rest in Christ.»
(Apostolic Constitutions, 7.497 ~ 4th century)

«But grant that he departed with sin upon him, even on this account one ought to rejoice, that he was stopped short in his sins and added not to his iniquity; and help him as far as possible, not by tears, but by prayers and supplications and alms and offerings.»
(Chrysostom- Homily 41 on 1 Cor)

And again from St. John Chrysostom we read: «to mention the names of the departed in the awesome mystery of the Eucharist results in much benefit for the souls of the beloved.»

LITURGY: the work of the people,
The People of God, The Laity;
not just the priest!

The Laity's presence and participation in the Church's Liturgies are ESSENTIAL!

All Souls Saturdays are no different!

"For you are all one in Jesus Christ."
Galatians 3:28

You who are alive and you who are dead;
You are all one in Jesus Christ.

«Let us pray for our brethren who are at rest in Christ.»
(Apostolic Constitutions, 7.497 ~ 4th century)

«But grant that he departed with sin upon him, even on this account one ought to rejoice, that he was stopped short in his sins and added not to his iniquity; and help him as far as possible, not by tears, but by prayers and supplications and alms and offerings.»
(Chrysostom- Homily 41 on 1 Cor)

And again from St. John Chrysostom we read: «to mention the names of the departed in the awesome mystery of the Eucharist results in much benefit for the souls of the beloved.»

Spiritual Readings for the Great Fast

The following titles are available through our Byzantine Catholic Seminary Press: 412 – 332 – 8307

- Great Lent, Journey to Pascha. Alexander Schmemmann
- The Ladder of Divine Ascent. Saint John Climacus
- The Lenten Spring. Thomas Hopko
- The Philokalia, on Prayer of the Heart.

+++++

Copies of Metropolitan William's Pastoral Letter for the Great Fast 2014 are available in the Narthex.

Pittsburgh's Byzantine Archbishop Skurla named to Vatican body. Influential congregation oversees Eastern Catholic churches. February 21, 2014 12:27 AM

By Peter Smith / Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Byzantine Catholic Archbishop William C. Skurla of Pittsburgh will serve on an influential Vatican body that oversees and advocates for Eastern Catholic churches. Pope Francis' appointment of Archbishop Skurla and others to the Congregation for Eastern Churches was announced this week. The Rev. George D. Gallaro, a professor at the Byzantine Catholic Seminary of SS. Cyril & Methodius in Pittsburgh, was named to be a consultor -- an expert advisory role -- to the congregation. The congregation oversees Catholic churches with historical and liturgical roots in Eastern Europe, the Middle East and other points east. "It's a great joy and honor," said Archbishop Skurla of the Byzantine Catholic Archeparchy of Pittsburgh. He and other congregation members will meet regularly to oversee issues ranging from liturgy to the often-precarious political status of these churches, many of which face persecution and other pressures such as the current political unrest in Ukraine. "It's a concern because so many of the governments aren't favorable to churches at all," he said. [...] The Pittsburgh Archeparchy stretches from portions of Pennsylvania to Texas. Most of its members -- nearly 58,000 according to the 2013 Official Catholic Directory -- live and worship in the Tri-state area, with roots in the immigrant communities from the region in the present-day borderlands of Ukraine, Slovakia and Hungary. [...] Father Gallaro, a native of Italy, teaches canon law and ecumenism at the seminary and works as vicar judicial for the Archeparchy of Pittsburgh.

Spiritual Readings for the Great Fast

The following titles are available through our Byzantine Catholic Seminary Press: 412 – 332 – 8307

- Great Lent, Journey to Pascha. Alexander Schmemmann
- The Ladder of Divine Ascent. Saint John Climacus
- The Lenten Spring. Thomas Hopko
- The Philokalia, on Prayer of the Heart.

+++++

Copies of Metropolitan William's Pastoral Letter for the Great Fast 2014 are available in the Narthex.

Pittsburgh's Byzantine Archbishop Skurla named to Vatican body. Influential congregation oversees Eastern Catholic churches. February 21, 2014 12:27 AM

By Peter Smith / Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Byzantine Catholic Archbishop William C. Skurla of Pittsburgh will serve on an influential Vatican body that oversees and advocates for Eastern Catholic churches. Pope Francis' appointment of Archbishop Skurla and others to the Congregation for Eastern Churches was announced this week. The Rev. George D. Gallaro, a professor at the Byzantine Catholic Seminary of SS. Cyril & Methodius in Pittsburgh, was named to be a consultor -- an expert advisory role -- to the congregation. The congregation oversees Catholic churches with historical and liturgical roots in Eastern Europe, the Middle East and other points east. "It's a great joy and honor," said Archbishop Skurla of the Byzantine Catholic Archeparchy of Pittsburgh. He and other congregation members will meet regularly to oversee issues ranging from liturgy to the often-precarious political status of these churches, many of which face persecution and other pressures such as the current political unrest in Ukraine. "It's a concern because so many of the governments aren't favorable to churches at all," he said. ... The Pittsburgh Archeparchy stretches from portions of Pennsylvania to Texas. Most of its members -- nearly 58,000 according to the 2013 Official Catholic Directory -- live and worship in the Tri-state area, with roots in the immigrant communities from the region in the present-day borderlands of Ukraine, Slovakia and Hungary. [...] Father Gallaro, a native of Italy, teaches canon law and ecumenism at the seminary and works as vicar judicial for the Archeparchy of Pittsburgh.