RESURRECTION WAS ONE MORE MIRACLE. CÆSARIUS OF ARLES: You ask me and say, «If He entered through closed doors, where is the bulk of His body?» And I reply, «If He walked on the sea, where was the weight of His body? But He [walked on the sea] as the Lord. Did He, then, because He arose, cease to be the Lord? What about the fact that He also made Peter walk upon the sea? What divinity could do in the one, faith fulfilled in the other. Christ was able to do it, and Peter could because Christ willed it. Therefore, when you begin to examine the reasonableness of miracles by your human senses, fear that you may lose your faith. Do you not know that nothing is impossible for God? So when anyone tells you, «If He entered through closed doors there was no body», answer him on the contrary, «No, if He was touched there was body, and if He ate there was a body». The one thing he did by a miracle, the other by nature. SERMON 175.2.

THE PEACE OF CHRIST. CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA: When Christ greeted His holy disciples with the words «peace be with you,» by peace He meant Himself, for Christ's presence always brings tranquility of soul. This is the grace Paul desired for believers when he wrote, «The peace of Christ which passes all understanding will guard your hearts and minds.» The peace of Christ which passes all understanding is in fact the Spirit of Christ, Who fills those who share in Him with every blessing. COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPEL OF JOHN 12:1
