PRAY WITHOUT CEASING: A monastic elder to the pilgrim «I say frequent prayer because purity and perfection in prayer is not within our reach, as St Paul the Apostle indicates. The Spirit comes to help us in our weakness when we do not know how to pray. Consequently, our only contribution toward perfection in prayer, the mother of all spiritual good, is regularity and constancy. 'If you win the mother, you will have the children also,' says Isaac the Syrian. Acquire the habit of prayer and it will be easy for you to do good.»
from The Way of a Pilgrim

Every good deed done for Christ's sake give us the grace of the Holy Spirit, but prayer gives us this grace most of all; for it is always at hand, as an instrument for acquiring the grace of the Spirit.
St. Seraphim of Sarov

THE PRESENCE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN OUR LIVES: «Never flag in zeal, be aglow with the Spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints, practice hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends upon you, live peaceably with all.
