THE CENTURION EXPECTED THE HEALING. CHRYSOSTOM: Some argue that the centurion, by his description, implied the reason why he had not brought his servant to Jesus, saying, «Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, in terrible distress,» as though he was at his last gasp, or even, as Luke said, he was «at the point of death.» In my opinion, however, the reason he had not brought him in was itself a sign of his great faith, even much greater than those who let the patient down through the roof. Because the centurion knew for certain that even a mere command was enough for raising the servant up, he thought it unnecessary to bring him. THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW, HOMILY 26.1.

LORD, I AM NOT WORTHY. AUGUSTINE: When the Lord promised to go to the centurion's house to heal his servant, the centurion answered, «Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed.» By viewing himself as unworthy, he showed himself worthy for Christ to come not merely into his house but also into his heart. He would not have said this with such great faith and humility if he had not already welcomed in his heart the One Who came into his house. It would have been no great joy for the Lord Jesus to enter into his house and not to enter his heart. For the Master of humility both by word and example sat down also in the house of a certain proud Pharisee, Simon, and though He sat down in his house, there was no place in his heart. For in his heart the Son of Man could not lay His head. SERMON 62.1.
