The Centurion Pleads Unworthiness LORD, I AM NOT WORTHY. St. AUGUSTINE: When the Lord promised to go to the centurion's house to heal his servant, the centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed." By viewing himself as unworthy, he showed himself worthy for Christ to come not merely into his house but also into his heart. He would not have said this with such great faith and humility if he had not already welcomed in his heart the One Who came into his house. It would have been no great joy for the Lord Jesus to enter into his house and not to enter his heart. For the Master of humility both by word and example sat down also in the house of a certain proud Pharisee, Simon, and though He sat down in his house, there was no place in his heart. For in his heart the Son of Man could not lay His head. SERMON 62.1

JULY 4th PRAYER: Father of all nations and ages, we recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations; for what has been achieved we give You thanks, for the work that still remains we ask Your help, and as You have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under Your providence, our country may share Your blessings with all the peoples of the earth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.
