St. Pancratius was from Antioch, Syria. He was introduced to Christianity by the Apostle Peter who also made him Bishop of Taormina in Sicily.

«One thing I ask of the LORD, for this I long: To dwell in the House of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze on the LORD's beauty, to visit His Temple. For God will hide me in His shelter in time of trouble. He will conceal me in the cover of His Tent; and set me high upon a rock. [...] I will offer in His Tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music for the LORD.»

Psalms 27: 4 - 6

«Let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for a man's anger does not fulfill God's justice. If a man who does not control his tongue imagines that he is devout, he is self-deceived; his worship is pointless.

James 1:19b -20, 26

«Become holy yourselves in every aspect of your conduct, after the likeness of the holy One Who called you; remember, Scripture says, 'Be holy, for I AM holy.'»

1 Peter 1:15-16
