Remember to bring FLOWERS and HERBS to church to be blessed at the Dormition liturgies. Some things to do after the Liturgy to honor this most holy Feast of the Theotokos:

Use the hymns below as prayers before and / or after meals, and as part of your and your children's evening prayers during the 8-day «after feast» until August 23rd. If you have an icon of this feast, display it in your 'icon corner'. If there are children at home, discuss the icon with them so that they are able to recognize all the figures and be able to tell the story. Use the flowers blessed at the end of the Divine Liturgy to decorate the icon or the family table. Make an extra bouquet for someone who cannot come to Church.

TROPARION: O Theotokos, in giving birth you preserved virginity; and in your falling asleep you did not forsake the world. You are the Mother of Life and have been transferred to life, and through your prayers you deliver our souls from death.

KONTAKION: The grave and death did not detain the Theotokos. She intercedes without rest and is our unfailing hope of protection; for He Who dwelt in the womb of the Ever-Virgin transferred to life the Mother of Life.

MAGNIFICATION: The angels were struck with amazement beholding the dormition of the Most Pure; seeing how the Virgin was taken up from earth to heaven. IRMOS: The limits of nature are overcome in you, O pure Virgin, for birth giving remains virginal and death is the prelude to life: a virgin after childbearing and alive after death! You ever save your inheritance, O Theotokos.
