The Nativity Fast is a time of preparation and anticipation and longing for the coming, the arriving – the advent – of Christ in history, in our daily lives, at the end of time. John of Antioch – the Chrysostom – composed the following prayer 16 centuries ago:

*You have laid on me, O Christ, a spell of longing
You have charmed me with an eros all divine:
Consume, therefore, my sins with immaterial fire;
Be pleased to fill me with Your sweet delights.
Then I shall magnify Your advent in the past
And the one we still await with joy, O gracious God.*

Jesus, Wisdom, Designer of all, O Breath of the Power of God, pure emanation of the glory of the Almighty: Come and save those who hope in You.

Emmanuel, God with us, have mercy on us.

Jesus, true Light from the eternal Light, spotless mirror of God's creative power, Icon of His goodness: Come and save those who hope in You.

Emmanuel, God with us, have mercy on us.

Jesus, sweetest Child, fulfillment of the sign "Emmanuel," God with us: Come and save those who hope in You.

Emmanuel, God with us, have mercy on us.

Jesus, Messenger of Great Counsel, Prince of Peace, and Lord of the Age to Come: Come and save those who hope in You.

Emmanuel, God with us, have mercy on us.

Jesus, eternal life, wrapped as a servant in swaddling clothes, that as God, You might sunder the chains of death: Come and save those who hope in You.

Emmanuel, God with us, have mercy on us.

Jesus, Star of Jacob which arose in a cave, O Shepherd of Israel Whom the shepherds adored: Come and save those who hope in You.

Emmanuel, God with us, have mercy on us.
