SAINT ARTEMIOUS OF ANTIOCH lived during the years of Saint Constantine the Great, and was appointed by him to be Governor of Alexandria; later, he was honored with the rank of patrician. During the reign of Julian the Apostate (who had abandoned the Orthodox faith and returned to worshipping the ancient Roman gods), in the year 361, Artemius appeared before the Emperor and censured him for his apostasy. For this, he endured many torments and was finally beheaded.
